Minutes:

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN was pleased to acknowledge the young men and women of the Clark High School Junior Navy ROTC, who, for the past thirteen years, have been recognized as one of the top units in the country. She noted that in addition to being known for their military formations, their drill competitions and their knowledge of citizenship, leadership and patronage, these cadets contribute many hours volunteering for park cleanups, assisting senior citizens, painting out graffiti throughout the Valley and numerous other community services.

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN presented a Certificate of Recognition to MASTER CHIEF JAMES COLTRINE and COMMANDER DAN JORVICK for their years of community service throughout the City, averaging well over 2,000 manhours. COMMANDER JORVICK stated that the success of this program could not have been accomplished without the dedication of the cadets and the support of Clark High School Principal MS. PENDELTON and the school counselors. MASTER CHIEF COLTRINE pointed out that the drill teams are a small cross section of the unit comprised of approximately 165 young adults. COMMANDER JORVICK introduced each of the 22 cadets who were present.
